

AN ERA AT ITS HEIGHT — Mural depicting Bergen Point section on Kill Van Kull during days of the early Dutch settlers (circa 1645) hangs in the old County Courthouse, Jersey City. Mayor

^{any history}
Fitzpatrick has requested the mural be saved if the courthouse is demolished, and given to Bayonne for its new city hall. Murals to the left and right show Henry Hudson's Half Moon entering Newark Bay (1609) and Peter Stuyvesant watching the approach of the British fleet to which he surrendered all of New Amsterdam in 1664.